10 Civ. 1302 (MGC)
ECF CASE

CONSENT OF DEFENDANT JAMES S. PAINTER, III AND RELIEF DEFENDANT EMERGING MARKETS CONSULTING, LLC

1. Defendant James S. Painter, III ("Defendant") and Relief Defendant Emerging Markets Consulting, LLC ("Relief Defendant") acknowledge having been served with the complaint in this action, enter a general appearance, and admit the Court's jurisdiction over them and over the subject matter of this action.

2. Without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint (except as to personal and subject matter jurisdiction, which Defendant and Relief Defendant admit), Defendant and Relief Defendant hereby consent to the entry of the final Judgment in the form attached hereto (the "Final Judgment") and incorporated by reference herein, which, among other things:

- (a) permanently restrains and enjoins Defendant from violating Section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") [15 U.S.C. § 77e];
- (b) orders Defendant and Relief Defendant to pay disgorgement in the amount of $352,428.00, plus prejudgment interest thereon in the amount of $50,000.00; and
- (c) orders Defendant to pay a civil penalty in the amount of $20,000.00 under Section 20(d) of the Securities Act [15 U.S.C. § 77t(d)].

3. Defendant agrees that he shall not seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made pursuant to any insurance policy, with regard to any civil penalty amounts that Defendant pays pursuant to the Final Judgment, regardless of whether such penalty amounts or any part thereof are added to a distribution fund or otherwise used for the benefit of investors. Defendant further agrees that he shall not claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction or tax credit with regard to any federal, state, or local tax for any penalty amounts that Defendant pays pursuant to the Final Judgment, regardless of whether such penalty amounts or any part thereof are added to a distribution fund or otherwise used for the benefit of investors.

4. Defendant and Relief Defendant waive the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

5. Defendant and Relief Defendant waive the right, if any, to a jury trial and to appeal from the entry of the Final Judgment.

6. Defendant and Relief Defendant enter into this Consent voluntarily and represent that no threats, offers, promises, or inducements of any kind have been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission to induce Defendant to enter into this Consent.

7. Defendant and Relief Defendant agree that this Consent shall be incorporated into the Final Judgment with the same force and effect as if fully set forth therein.

8. Defendant and Relief Defendant will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waive any objection based thereon.

9. Defendant and Relief Defendant waive service of the Final Judgment and agree that entry of the Final Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk of the Court will constitute notice to Defendant and Relief Defendant of its terms and conditions. Defendant and Relief Defendant further agree to provide counsel for the Commission, within thirty days after the Final Judgment is filed with the Clerk of the Court, with an affidavit or declaration stating that Defendant and Relief Defendant have received and read a copy of the Final Judgment.

10. Consistent with 17 C.F.R. 202.5(f), this Consent resolves only the claims asserted against Defendant and Relief Defendant in this civil proceeding. Defendant and Relief Defendant acknowledge that no promise or representation has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission with regard to any criminal liability that may have arisen or may arise from the facts underlying this action or immunity from any such criminal liability. Defendant and Relief Defendant waive any claim of Double Jeopardy based upon the settlement of this proceeding, including the imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein. Defendant and Relief Defendant further acknowledge that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding. In addition, in any disciplinary proceeding before the Commission based on the entry of the injunction in this action, Defendant and Relief Defendant understand that they shall not be permitted to contest the factual allegations of the complaint in this action.

11. Defendant and Relief Defendant understand and agree to comply with the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the complaint or order for proceedings." 17 C.F.R. § 202.5. In compliance with this policy, Defendant and Relief Defendant agree: (i) not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the complaint or creating the impression that the complaint is without factual basis; and (ii) that upon the filing of this Consent, Defendant and Relief Defendant hereby withdraw any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the complaint. If Defendant or Relief Defendant breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this action to its active docket. Nothing in this paragraph affects Defendant's or Relief Defendant's: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

12. Defendant and Relief Defendant hereby waive any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to seek from the United States, or any agency, or any official of the United States acting in his or her official capacity, directly or indirectly, reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by Defendant or Relief Defendant to defend against this action. For these purposes, Defendant and Relief Defendant agree that Defendant and Relief Defendant are not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.

13. Defendant and Relief Defendant agree that the Commission may present the Final Judgment to the Court for signature and entry without further notice.

14. Defendant and Relief Defendant agree that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the Final Judgment.
